

Alray Scholars Program

Giving Boston's students a second chance at college

The Alray Scholars Program provides scholarships, mentoring, and career counseling to graduates of Boston Public Schools who are returning to college after having suffered a setback on their first try. We commit to supporting scholars through graduation.

ALRAY PROVIDES HIGH QUALITY, HIGH IMPACT SERVICES, INCLUDING:

SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholars are eligible for financial awards each semester until they earn their degree.

1-TO-1 MENTORING

Scholars are paired with a dedicated volunteer mentor who is there to provide consistent, ongoing support.

CAREER COUNSELING

Scholars receive individualized coaching, preparing them to land a great job and make the most of their hard-earned degree.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Graduated from a Boston public high school or a Boston charter high school, or received a GED after attending one of these schools, or graduated from the Metco program while residing in Boston
- Enrolled and started a college, trade school, or vocational program after completing high school
- Left post-secondary educational program without completing due to family, personal, or educational reasons
- Used time away from educational program productively, such as being involved in community, school, and/or work activities

APPLICATION DEADLINES: JUNE 1 & OCT 15

www.alray.org

"My whole experience with this program has been nothing less than monumental in helping me get back on my feet to finish what I thought could not be done. Alray Scholars truly pushed boundaries in helping me achieve my goal of completing my undergraduate degree. Thanks to the program, I was able to receive a hand when in need." — Ray, University of Massachusetts Dartmouth Graduate

TO LEARN MORE OR SUBMIT AN APPLICATION, VISIT OUR WEBSITE: WWW.ALRAY.ORG

You can also reach out to staff by email at apply@alray.org or by phone at 617-807-0104